

John
first century A.D.
Known as "the Divine" or "the Evangelist," one of the twelve disciples, brother of James (the elder), and author of three epistles, the fourth Gospel, and the Book of Revelation.

Thaddaeus
first century A.D.
Also known as Lebbaeus, one of the twelve disciples, and brother of James (the lesser).

Matthew
first century A.D.
Originally a tax collector, one of the twelve disciples and author of the first Gospel of the New Testament.

Philip
first century A.D.
One of the twelve disciples and present at the feeding of the 5,000.

Simon
first century A.D.
Surnamed "the Zealot" and "the Canaanite," and one of the twelve disciples, he preached in Babylonia and Persia. He died a martyr.

Thomas
first century A.D.
One of the twelve disciples, he doubted Jesus' resurrection until he saw the nail wounds, coining the phrase "doubting Thomas."